Covering new districts under Total Literacy Campaign

711. SHRI BHAGABAN MAJHI: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the criteria for selecting new districts for Total Literacy Campaign;

(b) the details of the new districts selected in different States and Union Territories for the purpose;

(c) whether Government propose to launch this campaign in each and every district in the country; and

(d) if so, the steps taken by Government in that direction?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DEPTT. OF EDUCATION AND DEPTT. OF CULTURE) (KUMARI SELJA): (a) The project proposals for total literacy campaign are prepared in the districts by the Zilla Saksharata Samitis based on the criteria like educational resources available in the districts, level of preparedness for launching literacy campaign, the commitment of the State and district administration and creation of a demand for literacy generated through multi-media publicity leading to mass mobilisation.

The proposals from districts, as recommended by the State Governments, are initially scrutinised and are followed by pre-launch appraisal visits of a team of the National Literacy Mission representatives for reporting on the state of preparations made in the districts for launching of literacy campaigns. Based on the appraisal report, the district proposals are considered in the periodic meetings of the Project Approval Committee of the National Literacy Mission Authority.

(b) to (d) The objective of the National Literacy Mission is to cover 100 million persons in 345 districts of the country by the end of the Eighth Five-Year Plan. The Total Literacy Campaign has become
